Edition of 2021/2022

Why us?

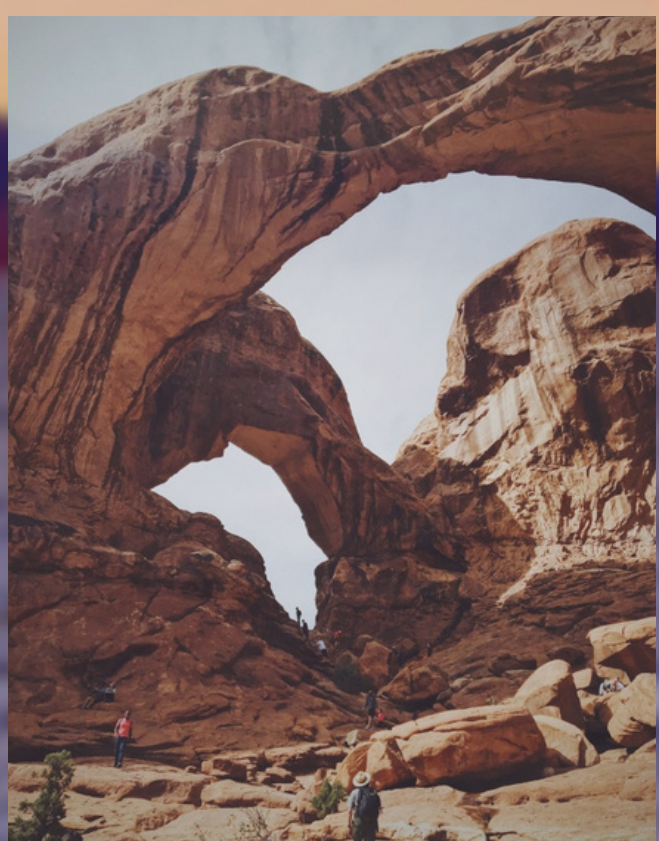

If have you ever considering going to the USA for any occasion, you should check out the West Coast. In one word it's astonishing and the options that you have are infinite. You can have a relaxing holiday, or a study, trip or whatever you want. There are many famous, huge parties, concerts, and all kinds of social activities to do with your family and friends. But if you prefer chilling by yourself, or don't feel like a crowd loving person, don't worry we got you. The West Coast offers a variety of outdoor and indoor activities, and the best part is that you can go whenever you want to. It doesn't depend on the season or your age.

Once again, make sure to check us out on your trip to the USA.

Death Valley.

Death Valley is a tremendous valley located on the eastern side of California. It's only a few hours from Las Vegas. The valley contains the lowest (86m) and the highest (4421m) points in the contiguous United States with sand dunes, lakes, and spectacular sites.

Have you ever wondered where the world's hottest place is? Do you want to see one of the spots where Star Wars was filmed? Then Death Valley is your national park to visit!

We would recommend you that you go in the springtime when the valley is blooming from the melted snow from the mountains.

Although, if you are more adventurous and decide to go in the summertime, then bring tons of water with you because of the heat.

Lake Tahoe

As teenagers, we all want to hang out with our friends, go on holidays, or just go on trips. Well, if you want to go on an amazing holiday with your friends or your loved one, Lake Tahoe is perfect for you. The scenery in itself is breathtaking, but when you and all the possible activities and things you can do as a teenager, it is exciting.

If you want to have an astonishing summer holiday where you can swim, chill, or do something extreme like for example rock climbing, then Lake Tahoe is your place. But if you prefer winter, don't worry, there's still plenty of activities to do here. You can have a romantic iceskating with your significant other, or have an adrenaline rush with your friends (bros) by skiing in the mountains near the lake. So, if you ever consider going abroad with your friends, then make sure to visit Lake Tahoe.

La-La Land

Come visit one of the most iconic cities in the world, Los Angeles. It is one of the largest cultural centers on the West Coast in California, which makes it is a wonderful tourist destination. Immerse yourself in the unbelievable skyscrapers, and luxurious mansions, and the lovely palm trees. You should take a stroll on Venice Beach, and cool your self of in the ocean, You can even play basketball on one of the most famous courts in America. Travel north to Malibu and be amazed by the luxury and lifestyle of the people.

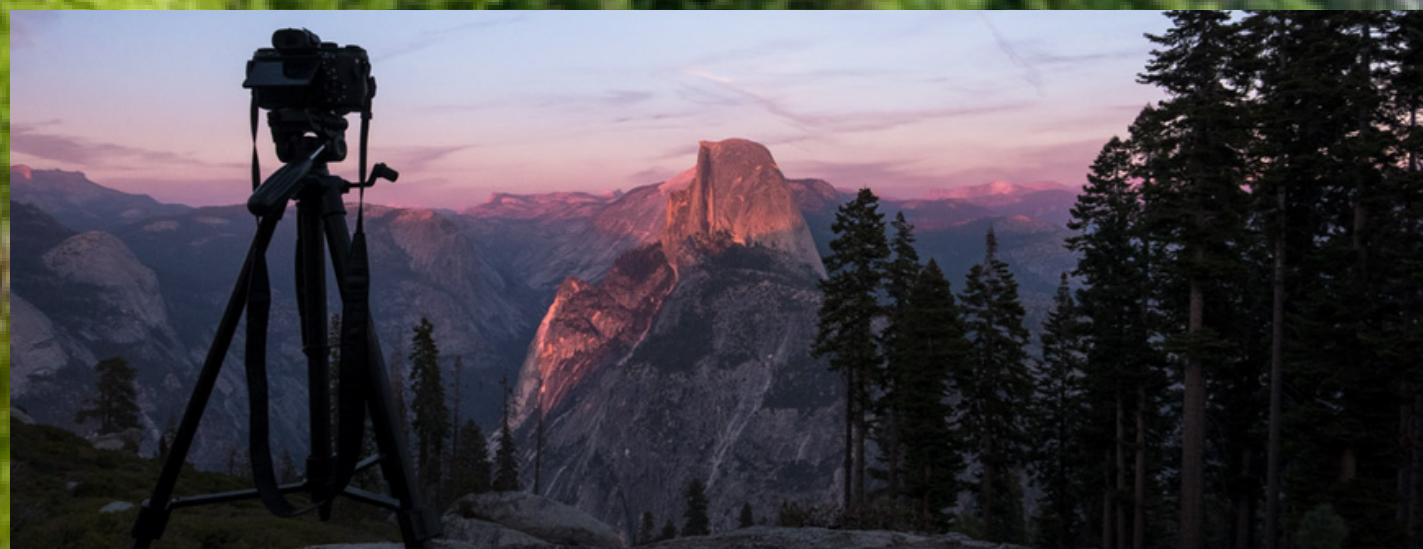

Also check out Hollywood, and visit Universal Studios, Walt Disney, Paramount Pictures, and Warner Bros. Make a trip through the walk of fame, and hike to the famous Hollywood sign.

Yosemite National Park

Are you bored of the mainstream sights like the big cities, festivals, and beaches? Then you might like the mighty Nature that surround Yosemite National Park. It's one of the most iconic national park in the USA, likely famous of its waterfalls. Yosemite provides lots of spectacles for the people who love the outdoor and enjoying natural activities.

You can check out the migrating birds, go biking, or hiking. If you are an artistic type who loves to paint and take photos, Yosemite's epic scenery freely lends itself to the artist's eye like only a few places can.

There are options for everyone!
